

India Inc cautious with B'desh on boil

BS REPORTERS

Mumbai, 6 August

Amid escalating unrest in Bangladesh, some of India's largest companies, including Dabur, Adani Power, Marico, Hero MotoCorp, and TVS Motor, are assessing the impact on their business interests in the country.

Despite the turmoil that saw resignation of Sheikh Hasina and her subsequent escape to India on Monday, Tata group airlines — Air India and Vistara — have decided to resume flights to Dhaka. The death toll in the latest spate of violence reached at least 440.

Expressing concern, External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar, delivered suo-motu statements in both Houses of Parliament on Tuesday, and articulated deep worries over the situation in Bangladesh, particularly concerning the welfare of minority communities. He said India is in regular contact with Bangladeshi authorities.
