

Duty free imports of urad extended till March 31, 2026

Vishwanath Kulkarni
Bengaluru

The government on Monday extended the free import policy of urad by an year till March 31, 2026, following a shortfall in domestic production.

The Directorate General of Foreign Trade (DGFT) has issued a notification in this regard on Monday, extending the duty-free urad imports. The free import policy for urad was supposed to end on March 31, 2025.

Also, the DGFT issued a notification extending the duty free imports of yellow peas on Monday. "Import of yellow peas is free without the minimum import price condition and without port restriction, subject to registration under online import monitoring system with immediate effect for all import consignments where bill of lading is issue on or before May 31, 2025," it said.