

India-US Trade Policy Forum meet soon: Goyal

India and the United States (US) will soon hold the next ministerial-level meeting of the Trade Policy Forum (TPF) in America to discuss ways for promoting trade and investment between the countries, Commerce and Industry Minister Piyush Goyal said.

During a media interaction in Los Angeles at the TPF meet, both nations will come up with 'more deliverables and newer areas of engagements' for which the teams on either side have been tasked to start engaging with each other, an official statement from the commerce and industry ministry said on Friday.

Last November, US Trade Representative (USTR) Katherine Tai and Goyal chaired the first meeting of the revived Trade Policy Forum in the national capital after a four-year gap. Both nations had hoped to reach some kind of an understanding to resolve issues pertaining to agriculture, non-agriculture goods, services, investments and intellectual property rights. Goyal is currently on a six-day visit to San Francisco and Los Angeles.
