

Auto sales see robust growth in Nov: SIAM

Our Bureau
New Delhi

Domestic wholesales (dispatches to dealers) of all segments in the automobile sector recorded robust growth in November on a year-on-year (y-o-y) basis, led by festival season sales.

In the passenger vehicle (PV) segment, domestic sales grew around 4 per cent y-o-y at 3,34,130 units during the month, compared to 3,22,268 units in the same month a year ago, according to the Society of Indian Automobile Manufacturers (SIAM) on Tuesday.

In PV segment, sales grew by around 4% y-o-y at 3,34,130 units against 3,22,268 units a year ago

2-WHEELER SALES

Two-wheeler sales grew 31.31 per cent y-o-y to 16,23,399 units in November, against 12,36,282 units in the corresponding month last year. While motorcycle sales grew 36 per cent y-o-y to 10,70,798 units (against 7,88,893 units), scooter sales grew 23.29 per cent y-o-y to 5,09,119 units (against 4,12,924 units) during the month.

Similarly, three-wheeler dispatches rose 31 per cent y-o-y at 59,738 units last month, compared to 45,664 units in November 2022. "All segments of the automobile industry witnessed robust growth during the festival season, which ended in the first part of November. For the month, passenger vehicle sales grew moderately, and two-wheeler and three-wheeler segments posted high double-digit growth," said Vinod Aggarwal, President, SIAM.

Commercial vehicles sales matched last year's levels. Supported by strong economic growth, the industry is optimistic about ending the year 2023 on a high note and expects the trend to continue into 2024, he added.