

₹75K cr solar scheme to offer homes 300 units free electricity

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

New Delhi, 13 February

In a bid to boost solar power and sustainable progress, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Tuesday announced that his government is launching the 'PM Surya Ghar: Muft Bijli Yojana' which aims to light up ten million households by providing up to 300 units of free electricity every month.

The Prime Minister said the project would entail an investment of over ₹75,000 crore.

"In order to further sustainable development and people's wellbeing, we are launching the PM Surya Ghar: Muft Bijli Yojana. This project, with an investment of over ₹75,000 crore, aims to light up 1 crore households by providing up to 300 units of free electricity every month," Modi said on X.

From substantive subsidies, which will be given directly to people's bank accounts, to heavily concessional bank loans, the central government will ensure that there is no cost burden on the people, he said.

All stakeholders will be integrated to a National Online Portal.

Modi said that in order to popularise this scheme at the grassroots, urban local bodies

From substantive subsidies to heavily concessional bank loans, the government will ensure there is no cost burden on people, said Prime Minister Narendra Modi and panchayats shall be incentivised to promote rooftop solar systems in their jurisdictions.

"At the same time, the scheme will lead to more income, lesser power bills and employment generation for people," Modi said.

"Let's boost solar power and sustainable progress. I urge all residential consumers, especially youngsters, to strengthen the PM - Surya Ghar: Muft Bijli Yojana by applying at — <https://pmsuryaghar.gov.in>," Modi said.