

UK's Dennis Eagle renews deal with TVS Supply Chain; ₹800-cr' contract spans 5 yrs

Our Bureau
Chennai

TVS Supply Chain Solutions (TVS SCS) on Wednesday announced the renewal of a key business deal with Dennis Eagle, UK, for a further five years. Dennis Eagle is engaged in the design and manufacture of pioneering refuse collection vehicles in the UK.

Through the extension of this contract, TVS SCS' UK division will continue to add value in their aftermarket service and supply of spare parts to Dennis Eagle, said a statement. The value of the deal was not disclosed. Sources said it could be worth around ₹800 crore, and is one of the biggest deals the company has won in recent times.

STRONG RELATIONSHIP

"Our strong relationship with Dennis Eagle over the last 16 years and the extension of this contract demonstrates our commitment to aligning with our customers' business

Ravi Viswanathan, MD,
TVS Supply Chain Solutions

needs," said Ravi Viswanathan, MD, TVS Supply Chain Solutions.

Dennis Eagle manufactures over 1,000 units per year for UK local authorities and private sector contractors. The aftermarket parts service provided includes product data management, sourcing, purchasing and supplier management, stocking and distribution, next-day delivery throughout the UK and delivery to export markets, and the creation of technical manuals and catalogue illustrations.