British luxury carmaker McLaren Automotive launched its operations in India on Thursday with its first outlet in Mumbai.

The carmaker unveiled its new 765LT Spider in Mumbai and will offer models including the Everyday McLaren GT and the hybrid Artura. The range also includes the 720S in Coupe and Spider variants as well as the 765LT Coupe and Spider.

“McLaren will offer the full breadth of our model range to customers and enthusiasts in the country,” said Paul Harris, Managing Director – APAC and China, McLaren Automotive.

McLaren Mumbai will be represented by Infinity Cars. The showroom will have a dedicated service centre operated by a team of McLaren-trained engineers.
