

World needs resilience and India can take lead: Chandra

Tata group chief N Chandrasekaran on Wednesday said India has gone through a major attitude transition in the recent years and is now in a position to take the lead in bringing resilience back to the global economy. Speaking at a session on 'India's road to a USD 10 trillion economy', he also said the country has mastered the art of leveraging technology.

PTI