India remains committed to elevating its ties with the UK and welcomes the desire to conclude a "mutually beneficial" free trade pact, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said, after British Foreign Secretary David Lammy met him on Wednesday. Lammy is on a two-day visit to India to boost talks on the trade pact and reset the overall bilateral partnership in crucial areas, such as clean energy, new technologies and security. "Our FTA negotiations is the floor, not the ceiling of our ambitions to unlock our shared potential and deliver growth, from Bengaluru to Birmingham," he said. PTI
